

After the short training in UTH, my biggest impressions are your lifestyle and working style. The weather treated us so nice and clean and the people live neatly and strictly follow orders. The way Japanese run the tasks is professional. I hope I would soon have chance to come back to Japan in a near future.

